Houmas House is simply the TOP choice for Louisiana wedding venues. Not only is the staff impeccable, but the venue itself is out of this world! The owner takes great pride in making this establishment top notch! Their planning is precise, their food is every bit of delicious and the overall atmosphere is fantastic. Our guests were over the top impressed with our...

The most amazing venue ever!

The owner, Kevin, gives a great bridal tour. He said that March was the best month to have a wedding here. We had our wedding March 26th and he was right. All of the flowers were blooming and we were told it wouldn't look like it did in another week. Cecily was amazing! She is very professional and takes care of everything to do with the venue. It is expensive, but worth every...

A beautiful day!

We fell in love with Houmas House in Darrow, LA when we first arrived. The grounds were gorgeous. While there are many venues to choose from, we choose outside at the tea house on the blue bridge.(modeled after Monet's famous painting) It was a peaceful and intimate experience. After the ceremony, we dined in the main house. The food was unbelievable and the staff was prompt and...
